

Glossary

Arraignment: The court hearing in which the defendant is formally charged with a crime and enters a plea of guilty or not guilty.

Bail: An amount of money which is sometimes imposed by the court to ensure the defendants appearance at future court hearings.

Continuance: A postponement of a case marked for trial or hearing to a later date.

Default: A defendant's failure to appear at a required legal proceeding.

Pre-Trial Conference: The hearing in which the prosecutor and the defense report the status of the case to the court.

Victim Impact Statement: As a victim of a crime you have the right to offer a verbal or written statement to the court after the defendant has been found guilty at trial or has admitted sufficient facts.

Restitution: In some cases, the Judge may order the defendant to pay the out-of-pocket expenses that you may have incurred as a result of the crime. Advocates are available to assist you in documenting your losses.

Probation: The defendant is placed under the supervision of a probation officer and is required to fulfill certain conditions set forth by the court for a specified period of time.

A Message from the District Attorney:

As your District Attorney, my primary mission is to ensure public safety in our neighborhoods, and provide for the protection of our citizens.

Without the assistance and cooperation of victims and witnesses, the successful prosecution of criminal cases cannot be achieved.

Victim Witness Advocates are available in every court to ensure that victims, witnesses and family members are afforded their rights under the law.

Sincerely,

Timothy J. Cruz
District Attorney
